

Dealers Dry MO

Matting everything to

rect mercantile principles.
Among the stores of the town probably few enjoy a more extensive trade than does the Mount Gilead Store Company of which Mr. L. P. Byrd is president, Mr. M. L. Harris vice-president, and Mr. R. B. Scarboro secretary and treasurer. The business has been established six years and its officers are live men who are succeeding through merit. The firm does an extensive supply business among the farmers and saw mill men of the surrounding country.

Cox & McKinnon, dealers in furniture, groceries, dry goods and notions, have one of the most popular stores