

General

Education

Career

Works

Life Stance

Personality

Connections

References

Album

People Also Searched For

William Raymond Green

Philemon Bliss

Edwin Earle Rives Edit Profile

judge

Edwin Earle Rives, American judge. Served as sergeant, A.U.S., World War I; Member American, North Carolina (chairman of the executive committee, 1937, vice president, 1941), Greensboro (vice president, 1942) bar associations, North Carolina Bar, Incorporated., General Alumni Association U. North Carolina (president, 1951-1952), Phi Delta Theta, Phi Delta Phi.; Club: Kiwanis.

Add photo

View map

Background

Rives, Edwin Earle was born on November 19, 1898 in Winston Salem, North Carolina, United States. Son of Edward Andrew and Florence (Goldston) Rives.

Education

Bachelor of Laws, University North Carolina, 1922.

Career

Admitted to North Carolina bar, 1922 and practiced in Greensboro, 1922-1929. Judge Municipal Court appointed by Greensboro City Council, 1929-1933. Appointed judge Municipal-Company Court by Governor of North Carolina since 1933.

Special assignment as personal representative Secretary of Army, Berlin, 1947-1948.

Consultant Secretary Army since 1948, appointed Civilian Aide, 1952. Appointed director Federal Prison Industries, Incorporated. by President, 1949.

Democratic candidate for nomination United States Congress, 1946.

Achievements

Edwin Earle Rives has been listed as a reputable judge by Marquis Who's Who.

Membership

Served as sergeant, A.U.S., World War I. Member American, North Carolina (chairman of the executive committee, 1937, vice president, 1941), Greensboro (vice president, 1942) bar associations, North Carolina Bar, Incorporated., General Alumni Association U. North Carolina (president, 1951-1952), Phi Delta Theta, Phi Delta Phi. Club: Kiwanis.

Connections

Married Mary Tankersley, November 15, 1922 (deceased). Married second, Margaret Hunter Stout, August 15, 1953. Children: Frances Adele, Edwin Earle, Mary Roselia.

Father: Edward Andrew Rives

Mother: Florence (Goldston) Rives

Spouse: Margaret Hunter Stout

Spouse: Mary Tankersley

child: Mary Roselia Rives

child: Frances Adele Rives

child: Edwin Earle Rives

Born

November 19, 1898
Winston Salem, North Carolina, United States

Died

December 12, 1953 (aged 55)

Resting place

Buried Greenhill Cemetery, Greensboro, North Carolina

Nationality

American

