Beautifully updated & appointed, the Garland-Buford house holds an incredible place in NC history. Built c. 1832, this fine country home has 2.37 acres of beautiful landscaping; boasts intricate wood workings inside & out by Master Craftsman Thomas Day; and was used as a Civil War hospital. Beautiful English kitchen with granite counter tops, stainless appliances, custom cabinetry and stone flooring. Original heart-pine flooring throughout most of house. Dining, living & family rooms. Two enormous central halls. Modern master bath has cast-iron, roll-top bathtub and historic replica fixtures. Amazing stairworks. Swimming pool, hot tub, porches & decks, detached pool house/office and wired workshop. Featured in Country Living, Money, and Smithsonian magazines. Also, don't miss our Open House from 3-5 p.m. Sunday, August 30. 3 bedrooms, 2 ½ baths, 3,744 sq.ft., 2.37 acres, $412,000.
